Surprised.
The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, learning that Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rayhill were planning to go away to spend the winter, this week decided to slip in and surprise Mrs. Rayhill, who is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Moore, so Friday afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation and select readings on the "Christmas Spirit." Mrs. Moore was assisted by her daughter, Mildred, served light refreshments, and the ladies thinking perhaps Mrs. Rayhill would forget how to quilt while she was gone gave her a silver thimble as a reminder of the many stitches they had taken together, so wishing them Godspeed and a good time in the land of sunshine and flowers, we bade them good-bye.
